

CONGRESS MEETS AND ORGANIZES

Real Business Begins With President's Address Today

RETURN CLARK TO CHAIR

Bring in Greatest Budget of Expenditures Ever Placed Before Congress in Time of Peace

THIRTY SENATORS SWORN IN

DAY IN CONGRESS.

Senate.
Met at noon and thirty new senators were sworn in.
Vice-president Marshall absent.

Elected Senator Clarke of Arkansas, as president pro tempore.

Adjourned at 4:02 p. m., until noon Tuesday.

House.

Met at noon.
Speaker Clark re-elected with Representative Mann chosen as minority leader.

Two thousand bills and resolutions introduced.
Last years rules adopted with few changes.

Adjourned at 4:05 until noon Tuesday.

Washington, Dec. 6.—Congress assembled and organized today for the session which is expected to be the greatest within the memory of the present generation.

Clark is Returned to Chair.

Four hours' work in the house
saw Speaker Clark returned to the chair; Representative Mann returned to the leadership of the Republican minority; the introduction of two thousand bills and resolutions,
many of them proposing measures
of national defense and many more in opposition; the re-appearance of constitutional amendments to en-franchise women and a miniature rules fight which flickered out with the adoption of last years' rules
with a few changes.

In the senate practically nothing was done except the election of Senator Clark of Arkansas as president pro tempore. Vice-president Marshall was absent because of the illness of his wife.

President to Address Session.

Both houses then, after sending a joint committee to the white house
to give official notice of the opening on congress adjourned until tomorrow when the real business of the session begins with President Wilson's address to a joint session
in the hall of the house at 12:30 o'clock. The greatest budget of expenditures ever placed before any American congress in times of peace was brought in from the various branches of the government, the total being some one hundred and seventy million dollars more than was asked for last year.

The great part of the proposed increase expenditure is for the enlarged
army and navy programs and aside from working out the problem of National defense it will be the business of congress to raise the revenue to pay for it.

Old timers, most of them Republicans re-elected after going down before the presidential Democratic landslide of 1912, came trooping back to places in the house eager for a part in the absorbing business of the next few months.

"Uncle Joe" Laughs at Rules Row.

"Uncle Joe" Cannon sat on a bench in the front row and laughed
while the house got into its little row over the rules and hot references to "canonism" were hurled back and forth across the dividing aisle.

Even today was only a field
day, one for making new acquaintances and renewing old ones, the congressional air was charged with the seriousness of the business of the months ahead, the business of legislating for a nation at peace in a world aflame with war and surrounded with almost endless possibilities.

In the stream of bills and resolutions that poured into the hopper
were not only plans for military preparedness but others proposing investigation of the motives of men and organizations who champion national defense. Notice was given that in the senate demands would be made for a showing of what the United States has accomplished against Great Britain's interference with American commerce abroad.

The entire fabric of the American government's delicate relation to the conflict across the seas probably be brought to the edge of congressional discussion and the administration leaders at not unkindly
of their tasks to preserve what President Wilson has expressed, a wish that there should be a united America.

DEMOCRATS TO CHOOSE CONVENTION CITY TODAY

DALLAS HAS BY FAR, THE LARGEST DELEGATION ON THE GROUND

Chicago and St. Louis Work for Meeting—Committee Will Take Luncheon With President at White House Wednesday.

Washington, Dec. 6.—The fight for the Democratic national convention, 1916 narrowed tonight to three cities—St. Louis, Chicago and Dallas—with the latter having by far the largest and most enthusiastic delegation on the ground. San Francisco, heretofore regarded as a contender for convention honors,
seemed to have left the field.

The Democratic national committee meets tomorrow to decide the time and place for holding the convention which all the committeemen
agree will re-nominate President Wilson. There was some doubt tonight as to whether the business of the committee could be concluded
in one-day session and there was a possibility the balloting for the convention city might not begin until Wednesday. The members of the committee are to take luncheon with the president at the white house
Wednesday noon and it was said that on this account no great effort
would be made to hurry matters through tonight. It seemed definitely settled tonight that no selection of a convention city would be made on the first ballot, a clear majority of the committee being necessary to a choice.

The southern committeemen are pretty generally lined up for Dallas
while other members of the party controlling body seem about equally divided between Chicago and St.
Louis.

The St. Louis delegation is making a determined fight and is only second to Dallas in numerical strength and energy. The Chicago delegation is working more quietly.

There appears to be a general
feeling among the Democrats that the Republican national convention will be held in Chicago as it so often has been in the past.

For this reason the advocates of both Dallas and St. Louis are making strenuous efforts to convince the national committeemen that the Democratic convention should go to one or the other of these cities.
They contend it would not be well
for both parties to hold conventions in the same city, probably in the same hall.

The committee doors will be besieged tomorrow by opposing delegations on woman suffrage. The suffragists were first to ask a hearing and when it was announced this had been granted, the anti-suffragists headed by Mrs. Arthur M. Dodge of New York, sought a similar privilege. This also has been granted and the women of the two parties will be given a limited time in which to present their arguments.

A resolution endorsing the work of the Wilson administration and the last congress was in course of preparation tonight and will be adopted by the committee to-morrow.

C. H. STINSON IS PROMOTED.

St. Louis, Dec. 6.—C. H. Stinson, general freight agent of the Washab,
was today appointed freight traffic
manager of the system.

Will Perfect Organization.

After the president has delivered his address tomorrow both houses
will proceed to perfect their organizations. Until the working committees are fully formed no legislation can be undertaken. While the house Democrats are organized the Republican assignments will not be made before the end of the week.

The Democratic assignments will be announced later in the week.
The Republicans began their part of the organization work today re-electing Senator Gallinger their floor leader and chairman of their conference.

Altho some of the principal bills
upon which the administration forces will be concentrated will be introduced soon none of them can be taken up until the committee organizations are complete.

The first roll call in the house today showed 427 members present
and eight absent—one of them accounted for by death.

The Democratic majority, altho reduced, put Speaker Clark back in the chair 221 to 194 and when the brush came on re-adopting the rules of the last house the Democratic leaders showed they still had a majority in hand, beating Republican Leader Mann's proposal for a revision 209 to 192.

Martin Presides Over Senate.

In the senate the newly elected and re-elected members took the oath. The body was leaderless when Secretary Baker rapped for order at noon and Senator Martin of Virginia was chosen to preside.

Thirty senators were sworn in,
Senators Brady of Idaho and Smith
of South Carolina being absent.

After this ceremony Senator Clark was elected and the senate recessed.

The cloture fight as a result of its failure in the Democratic caucus did not come up. When the old rules were re-adopted, however, Senator Walsh of Montana, announced that he reserved the right to submit rule revisions at a later time.

CONSTANTINE TELLS OF GREEK ATTITUDE

Declares People Do Not Want Any More War If They Can Help It

EMPHASIZES SINCERITY

King States Greece's Neutrality
Has Been Stretched to Utmost to Accomodate Entente

INTERVIEW LASTS AN HOUR

ATHENS, Saturday, Dec. 4 (via Malta and London Dec. 4, by a staff correspondent of the Associated Press).—Constantine I., king of the Greeks, received the correspondent of the Associated Press today and gave him a message for America on the attitude which Greece has assumed in the world war and the reasons for the policy which has been followed by the Greek government.

Trying To Guard Sovereignty.

"I am especially glad to talk to America," said the king, "for America will understand Greece's position.
We are both neutral and are together
determined, if it is humanly possible,
not to court destruction by permitting ourselves to be drawn into the trifling vortex of the present European conflict. Both are trying by every honorable means to guard our sovereignty, protect our own people
and stand up for our national interests without sacrificing that neutrality which we recognize as our only salvation. America is protected from immediate danger by the distance
which separates her from the battlefield. We, too, thought that once the battlefield shifted and when a shift again. What is happening in Greece today may happen in America, Holland or any other neutral country tomorrow, if the precedent
now sought to be established in the case of Greece is once fixed."

The interview with the king took place at noon in the king's personal residence, and the audience lasted an hour. The king displayed the good-humored, almost youthful candor of the ideal soldier to whom diplomatic expedients or lack of frankness seemed repugnant or impossible.

From time to time, emphasizing the earnestness and sincerity of what he was saying, he thumped the table with a clenched fist. Despite the seriousness of the message he was delivering, his gray eyes occasionally twinkled with raillery.

Stretched Neutrality To Utmost.

"The fundamental cause of entire threatening attitude of the entente powers towards Greece today and of the painful situation of my country,"
said the king, "is the entente's own assumption without the slightest reason therefore, that Greece is ready to betray the entente to Germany at the first favorable opportunity. Is it reasonable to suppose such a thing? From the very outset of hostilities I have been stretched to the utmost to accommodate the entente powers, for whom we have always felt the keenest sympathy and the deepest gratitude."

"The Dardanelles operations were directed from Greek islands occupied by Allied troops."
"When Serbia was endangered by the combined Austro-German and Bulgarian attack the Allied troops landed unopposed on Greek soil, from which, with the second city of Greece
as a base, they prosecuted not only unopposed, but aided in every way
consistent with any sort of neutrality
their fruitless and too long delayed campaign to rescue their ally."

Ask Greek Troops Withdrawal.

"Finally I myself have given my personal word that Greek troops never will be used to attack the Franco-British forces in Macedonia,
good faith by Greece the entente ask that the Greek troops be withdrawn from Saloniki—and that means all Macedonia—leaving our population unprotected from raids by Bulgarians."

"But had your majesty German assurance that the integrity of Greek territory will be respected?" the king was asked.

"Of course, and Entente assurance too."

"And similar assurance from Bulgaria?"

"Germany," said the king, "has given assurance for herself and her allies. But that does not prevent the German-Bulgarian armies as a measure of military necessity, from pursuing the retiring French and British tuning Greece into a second Poland.
I have that assurance also."

"That the Greek frontiers will be re-erected after the war does not rebuild towns or compensate my people for months, perhaps years, spent in living in misery as fugitives from their own land when their country is not at war and has nothing to gain
by risking devastation."

Does Not Want War.

"Why, the Entente powers treat me as if I were the king of a central Africa tribe, to whom the sufferings of his own people were a matter of indifference. I have been thru three wars. I know what war is. I do not want any more if it can be avoided honorably. My people do not want

TELEGRAPHIC BRIEFS

LINCOLN, Neb., Dec. 6.—Secretary of State Pool today received a letter from Colonel Theodore Roosevelt asking that his name be taken from the primary ballot and the request was complied with.

DULUTH, Minn., Dec. 6.—That the American Northwest faces a shortage of coal amounting to 3,- 000,000 tons is the assertion made today by the Duluth News-Tribune.
Only about two-thirds of 9,000,000
tons the paper claims usually on Duluth and superior docks at this time of year have been received.

ALTON, Ill., Dec. 6.—The plant of the Alton Steel Company, which went into the hands of a receiver
two years ago, has been sold to the LaCade Steel company of St. Louis, it was learned today. The plant was built at a cost of $1,200,000 and is to reopen Jan. 1, giving employment to 600 men.

HALIFAX, N. S., Dec. 6.—With fire raging in Number 2 hold, the British steamer Carlton arrived in port today with 7,300 tons of sugar on board. Captain Henderson at once reported the matter to the admiralty. He said the ship was rolling heavily when the fire was discovered and he was not sure whether an explosion had occurred.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—The petition of coal operators in the Wyoming region of Pennsylvania for a rehearing on the new rates to the Atlantic coast on small size of anthrocite was denied today by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

BERLIN, Dec. 6.—(via London).— Guastav Hollander, composer of music for the violin and piano, is dead. He was 65 years old.

OLATHE, Kans., Dec. 6.—The death of Colonel John Tyler Burris,
"one of the men who made Kansas"
was announced here today in telegrams from Los Angeles, Cal., where he had lived in recent years. Colonel Burris was a veteran of both the Mexican and Civil wars.

HONOLULU, Dec. 6.—Jeff McCann United States district attorney for the district of Hawaii, has resigned and his resignation, it became known here today, has been accepted by President Wilson. McCann announces that he will return to Tennessee his home state, and contest for the Democratic nomination for United States senator.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—President Wilson and on his list of callers today, Baron Shibusawa, a prominent Japanese, who is touring this country in the interest of the International School congress, to be held in Tokyo, after the war.

CHICAGO, Dec. 6.—Miss Jane Adams, peace advocate and settlement
worker, who is ill in a hospital here, continues to improve, it was said at the hospital today.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—Eugene Kluger, a Hungarian typesetter, his wife and Anton F. Mente, an Austrian, are held at police headquarters for investigation. In Kluger's apartment the detectives say they found a large consigned of chemicals and explosives.

WILMINGTON, Del., Dec. 6.—Colonel B. Paramarevsky, a representative of the Russian government in this country, to look after the performance of contracts for munitions,
committed suicide in his room here
today by shooting himself in the chest. It is said he had been suffering from nervousness for some time.

HALPIN TAKES STAND; ENTERS SWEEPING DENIAL OF CHARGES

CHICAGO, Dec. 6.—John J. Halpin, former chief of the detective bureau and so-called "man higher up" in the series of police graft prosecutions, took the witness stand in his own behalf this afternoon Halpin, who is specially accused of accepting a bribe to protect clairvoy-ants who were engaged in swindling operations entered a sweeping denial of the charges and gave testimony adduced for the purpose of establishing an alibi.

Cross-examination of Detective Sergeant Freeman Stelle, time-keeper of the bureau under Halpin who proceeded his former chief on the stand, lent interest to the trial. He admitted changing the record of roll call.

WHITMAN REMOVES M'CALL.

Albany, N. Y., Dec. 6.—Edward McCall of New York, a former justice of the supreme court and once successful candidate for mayor of New York was tonight removed from office as chairman of the downstate
public service commission by Governor Whitman who sustained in part the charges preferred against the commissioner by the Thompson investigating committee of the legislature.

any more and if they and I can help
it, we shall not have any more."
"Then your majesty does not believe the intervention policy of the former Premier M. Venizelos really expressed the will of the Greek people?"

"I know it did not," replied the king, forcefully.

PEACE TALK FINDS NO ECHO IN LONDON

British People Do Not Expect Any Suggestions
They Could Consent to

HOLD JOINT WAR COUNCIL

Efforts Will Be Made to Clear
Up Diplomatic Difficulties
Which Face Entente in Balkans

EVIDENCE OF SOME CHANGE

LONDON, Dec. 6.—The peace talk
which emanates from the Vatican, Switzerland and Scandinavia and has been aroused by the proposed questions by the Socialists in the Reichstag and the pope's address in the secret consistory, evokes no echo here. The British people are quite prepared to believe that Austria-Hungary is tired of war, that the people of Germany with the knowledge of heavy losses suffered at the different fronts, may be anxious to see an end to it, but they do not expect the rulers of the central powers to make any suggestions that any British government would or could consent to.

Joint War Council Meets.

They, therefore, are more interested in news of the joint war council of all the Allies, which has been formed and which held its first meeting in Paris today under the presidency of the French commander-in-chief, General Joffre, and hope from this that the war is to be prosecuted
more energetically and that efforts are to be made to clear up the diplomatic difficulties which face the quadruple entente in the Balkans.

Where and when the Allies will attempt the stroke, which they expect to start and turn the tide, only the ent conferees know and they are not likely to take the public into their confidence.

Evidence of Change in Balkans.

There is evidence, however, of some change in the Balkans where the British and French have been beating off Bulgarian attacks, and despite rumors that a withdrawal of Saloniki, owing to the Greek attitude, is contemplated, more troops are being landed.

There are signs that the Greek situation is righting itself and dispatches from Athens report that a modus vivendi has been arrived at with regard to military affairs which were waiting settlement and that Greek officers have gone to Saloniki
to put it into force.

Little Fighting Has Occurred.

Very little fighting has occurred on the different fronts, the artillery being chiefly engaged in Russia, France
and on the Austro-Italian frontier.

The British Mesopotamia force has made good its retirement to Kut-el-Amara, closely followed by the Turks who apparently are attempting to outflank General Townshend from the west. As the position is a strong one and reinforcements are arriving,

SUFFRAGISTS REQUEST SUPPORT OF PRESIDENT

TAKE DEMAND FOR CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO CONGRESS

Wilson Promises to Confer With Congress Leaders Over the Amendment—Declines to Take up Cause
in His Annual Address.

Washington, Dec. 6.—Woman suf-fragists brought their demand for a constitutional amendment to congress again today and renewed their request for support to President Wilson. While the president declined to take up their cause in his annual address tomorrow as they asked, he promised to confer with congress leaders over the amendment and from that assurance the women derived much encouragement. Heretofore the president consistently has held that suffrage was a state issue.

What effect, if any, the recent defeat of suffrage in the elections in the eastern states may have had on his attitude was not disclosed, but the women were confident that their latest pilgrimage to the white house had been the most fruitful of all.

The president's interview with 300 women in the east room of the white house was the climax to a day's demonstration which included
the presentation of petitions to congressmen, speechmaking on the steps of the capital, the introduction of the Susan B. Anthony suffrage amendment in the house and a parade up Pennsylvania avenue. Senator Mon-roney introduced the Susan B. Anthony bill in the senate. Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, president of the National American Woman suffrage association sat in the gallery with a party of suffrage leaders and watched the proceedings.

UPHOLD COLORADO'S AUTHORITY TO ENFORCE STATE-WIDE PROHIBITION

DENVER, Colo., Dec. 6.—The authority of Colorado to enact and enforce state-wide prohibition was upheld by the state supreme court today.

Governor Carlson expressed gratification when informed of the court's ruling. None of the attorneys for the liquor interests were in court.
Officials of breweries in Denver were quoted as saying they would unite with the city authorities in a strict enforcement of the prohibition law. It was said their plans contemplate the use of local plants for manufacturing non-alcoholic drinks after Jan. 1st, when the law goes into effect.

WILL MAKE ANOTHER EFFORT TO OPEN SALOONS.

Chicago, Dec. 6.—Altho the courts have three times refused to restrain the city authorities from denying to Chicago saloonkeepers the right to keep their saloons open on Sunday for the sale of tobacco and non-intoxicating drinks, another effort will

As the campaign for securing funds for Passavant hospital progresses one hears occasionally such questions as, "Why should I contribute toward the hospital fund? Every patient who is cared for there either pays individually or the expense is charged against the county and comes out of the general taxes." It is true that the county pays a nominal charge of $7 a week for the greater number of patients who are unable to pay their own expenses. It is also true that $7 does not cover the cost of caring for patients. Records of the institution show that the average cost is $15.57 and therefore when $7 is paid for a week's care of a patient there is a deficiency of $8.57 which must be met from some other source. Persons familiar with the operation of hospitals will tell you that no public hospital is maintained simply by the revenue which comes from the care of patients. The larger hospitals in the cities have great endowments which enable them to be maintained.

A Billion and a Quarter Congress.

The time was not long ago when a billion dollar congress was looked upon as something of an extravagance, at least so various party leaders told us, but the men in control of that congress defended themselves by saying that the billion dollar congress was worth the money. It is now up to the Democratic party to defend a billion and a quarter dollar congress if the recommendations made by Secretary of the Treasury William G. McAdoo are followed. His estimate was transmitted to congress Monday and the tremendous total reached is $1,235,357,898.15. This means practically $9 apiece for every man, woman and child in the United States and the estimates are $167,831,401 more than the last appropriations. Naturally one very large expenditure provided for is national defense and the Democrats will defend the course they have outlined by declaring that the defense plans are absolutely essential and that other increases demanded are occasioned by the European war.

Ready for Holiday Trade.

Anyone who visits the business districts now will be impressed with the extensive stocks that the stores are showing. For a good holiday business all that is needed now is fair weather. The country roads are not in good condition, but if there is warmer weather for a few days they will be dragged and if it continues cold they will be worn down sufficiently in a short time to make them passable for horse drawn vehicles and automobiles.

Business conditions in the city are generally satisfactory and farmers are feeling more prosperous than they have for several years because the returns from their wheat were

AFTER THE WAR

When the foolish war is ended, and the sword is laid aside, and the fallen men are blended with the soil on which they died, will the nations

be as daring as they were before the scrap, will they hunt for trouble, caring for the outcome not a rap? Will the monarchs and the colonels, having seen that war's a frost, having surmised up in their journals what the crazy fighting cost—will they milder be or bolder, will they still be out for gore, with a chip on every shoulder and a bulldog by the door? Well methinks they will be willing, being sick of blood and tears, to postpone all further killing for at least a hundred years. For they'll all be so disgusted and so weary and so sore, and their bank accounts so busted, they'll consider war a bore. But some men are greatly worried, lest they sail across the seas, and whip us, who've ne'er been carried 'twixt the fetlocks and the knees. They will have enough of fighting when their wretched scrap is over; there's no reason, at this writing, why we need to walk the floor.

better than expected and the corn crop is excellent, with a constantly upward price tendency. The merchants seem to have anticipated this condition for the holiday stocks are large and attractive. Certainly every resident of Jacksonville and the surrounding territory can have their wants fully and satisfactorily supplied in these local stores. The holiday goods displayed are of such a range in price and variety that there will be no difficulty in satisfying the individual demands. If you are puzzling over the Christmas gift problem, do not fail to make an early visit to the business district of Jacksonville.

A Tribute to England's Navy.

When war broke out, the price of wheat, cotton, flour, foodstuffs generally suffered a terrible slump from sheer fear. The ports of America were blockaded with exports from sheer fear. Soon as it was apparent that the fleet could protect the sea lanes of the world, wheat jumped 50 cents in price, a gain of almost $200,000,000 to America, cotton went from 6 cents to 12 cents, flour from $6 to $7.50 a barrel, and so all along the line of what America had to sell to Europe. That is what the fleet meant to America. It swept the seas of the world clear of fear. These statements and those following were written by A. C. Laut, in the Review of Reviews:

What the fleet meant to Germany is best evidenced by the fact that fifty-seven German and Austrian ships in the Mediterranean at once tied up in the harbors of Italy, sixty-six German and Austrian ships in the harbors of the United States, nine in Hawaii, some thirty-eight in the various ports of South America.

If the sea power of the fleet had been as much of a myth as it was a mystery, 170 great ocean-going vessels would hardly have taken to their heels and scampered for safety to intern in neutral ports. Yet, at this time, not a shot had been fired. Outside the Admiralty and Navy, probably not a dozen people knew where the fleet was; but there wasn't any doubt that it was. And there wasn't any doubt that it could fire some husky shots if it had to. The fleet has guarded the sea lanes of the world for a year and a half, tho it has chased commerce destroyers from the surface of the sea and from under the surface of the sea, its loss in men to date has been less than one-tenth of one-per cent.

GIVING.

(From State Register.)

Neither will I offer offerings unto the Lord my God which cost nothing.—II. Samuel xxiv:24.

This is the season of the year when the thoughts of people are directed to the subject of giving. Thanksgiving day has passed and the Christmas holidays are approaching. The calls upon the people for gifts and offerings are becoming year by year more numerous.

Here, in our own favored country are innumerable established institutions of one kind and another—our churches, charitable associations, relief societies, reform communities, organized homes for the poor and the wayward which have long been active in good works and must not now be wrecked for lack of financial support.

How are we as individuals going to meet our obligations to the appeals for these and other worthy objects? How are we going to give anything at all commensurate either with the desire we undoubtedly feel, or the need we most certainly encounter?

There is obviously no answer to the questions that arise if we give as we usually give, namely from our unused surplus. But he who is contented to give as he usually gives in these distressing unusual times is in reality not giving at all. Indeed at bottom we never give as we should give if our offering does not involve us in loss or sacrifice of a very real kind. We deceive ourselves if we think we are laying up reward in heaven, by generosity which does not go beyond the point of flattering the pride and easing the conscience of our abundance. "I will not offer gifts unto God," said David, "which cost me nothing."

If we would truly give we must give not merely the pennies that we can spare, but the dollars which we think we cannot do without. We should give liberally of our abundance to all worthy objects, and especially to those benevolences which appeal to our judgment as in most need of assistance. Freely we have received—freely we should give and give those offerings which cost us something. We should take food off our tables that others may be fed, garments off our backs that others may be clothed, luxuries from our homes that others may have bare necessities.

The spirit of giving that is acceptable unto the Lord is that which was shown by the poor widow who gave only two mites, but it was all her living. There are many people who give largely, who do not give liberally for they give that which costs them nothing. Some one has said that we ought to give "until it hurts." If all did this, contributions for the benefit of the suffering and those who need help would be much larger than they are.

To sum up the spirit of giving, it embodies in its perfect sense, the giving of ourselves. Money must be supplied, of course, and when we give this "until it hurts" we exemplify the spirit of true giving. But many today are unselfishly giving themselves for humanity's sake, to save others. Hundreds of women and men today are unselfishly devoting their lives to helping the wounded and the sick on the battlefields, and in the hospitals of Europe.

Other hundreds are unselfishly ministering to the sick and the wayward in all the cities of this land. These are giving themselves and they are thus offering gifts which cost something and verily they shall receive their reward. These are truly giving who give themselves.

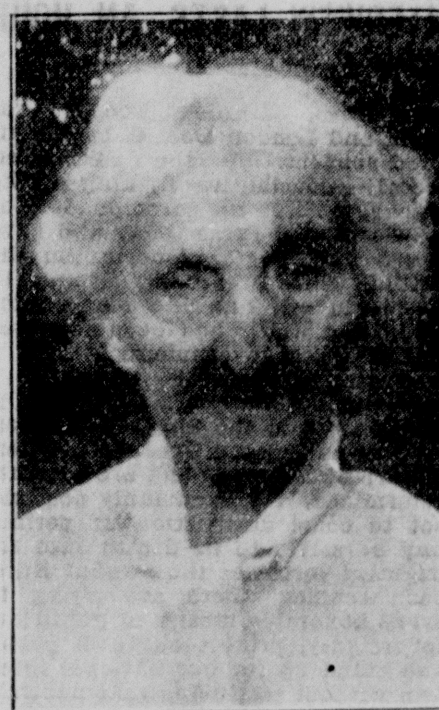

As James Russell Lowell puts it in "The Vision of Sir Launfal": "The Holy Supper is kept indeed in whatso we share with another's need;

Not what we give, but what we share, For the gifts without the giver is bare."

Here is the exemplification of the true principle of giving and here also is the solution of the problem, which is pressing upon us so acutely today. If we would all give not like "the rich man" in the parable but like "the poor widow" of (our) living, the needs even of the present grievous time would be satisfied. Let us therefore as we see the needs of this present time say in our hearts, "Neither will I offer offerings unto the Lord my God, which cost me nothing". Let us give "until it hurts". Pure religion and undefiled is exemplified by such giving. Its reward is a clear conscience and a cheerful heart.

MRS. GERADIA FERREIRA
REACHES HER 99TH YEAR

Sunday was the birthday of Mrs. Geradia Ferreira of 828 East Lafayette avenue. She was 99 years of age, having been born in the Island of Madeira on December 5, 1816. She was one of the original band of Portuguese exiles, who escaped their country under very dangerous circumstances, on account of religious persecution, and came to America. She married Frank Ferreira, who died 23 years ago, Dec. 4. There were no children in the family but during her declining years Mrs. Ferreira has had the loving administration of her foster son, Robert Moline, and Mrs. Zacharias, a relative of Springfield, and of other relatives of Jacksonville. For a great many years Mrs. Ferreira has been a member of Northminster church, and a woman whom everyone has learned to love for her beautiful character and life, and her kindly administrations to those she could assist, during her years of activity. For the past few days she has been seriously ill and on account of her extreme years little hopes have been held out for her recovery.

THE HILLIERBY SALE.

The annual handkerchief sale at Hillierby's has come to be one of the important local events of the holiday season. The sale for 1915 was announced for Monday, Dec. 6th and the interest created was sufficient to attract a great number of customers. They found the stock extensive and attractive, with a great variety of styles and price range. Purchases were liberal, but of course Mr. Hillierby selected stocks large enough to supply the Christmas handkerchief demand for days after the first. The Hillierby store is crowded with goods especially suited to the holiday season and shoppers will find a call there is well worth while. Whether you buy or not you will be welcome. For the special sale day dainty refreshments were served under direction of the Philathea circle of the Central Christian church.

"EXECUTION" AT J. B. C.

An interesting event in the contest now in progress at Jacksonville Business college was a mock trial and "execution" Monday afternoon. Abner Johnson, head of team No. 1, was the defendant, charged with securing the preliminary victory of his team in questionable manner. Harold McGinnis spoke of the prosecution and William Groves for the defense. Prof. Dean W. Geer was judge. On being found "guilty" the culprit suffered execution, with crepe paper and a chandelier as implements of his taking off. Miss Lillian Groves then read the will and testament of team No. 1, giving to members of the other teams much good advice.

MORTUARY

Vieira.

Word has been received in the city of the death of Mrs. Mary Vieira, who passed away at her late home in Springfield Monday morning at 2 o'clock. She was over 90 years of age and was an aunt of the late John Vieira of Jacksonville. She is survived by one son John Roderick of Springfield.

Funeral services will be conducted at Springfield this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock and Mrs. John Vieira and daughter Jeanette expected to attend.

Ferreira.

Frank Ferreira died Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the family home, 1 1-2 miles northeast of Jacksonville, after a long illness. He was born in the island of Madeira, March 20, 1852 and came to Illinois in 1854, settling in Morgan county. He married Miss Martha Fernandes of this city, March 15, 1893 and had followed the occupation of a farmer for a number of years. He is survived by his father, John Vieira of Madeira and four brothers, James and John Ferreira of Springfield; Henry of Kingfisher, Oklahoma and J. Z. Smith of Jacksonville.

The funeral will be conducted from the family residence Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in charge of Rev. W. E. Spooner and interment will be made in Jacksonville cemetery.

"QUALITY STREET" WAS PRESENTED AT WOMAN'S COLLEGE LAST NIGHT

"Quality Street" by J. N. Berry, was presented by the Dramatic club of the Woman's college in Music hall Monday evening. It was a play in which the ladies only were invited and there was a good sized audience present. The young ladies taking part acquitted themselves in a complimentary manner and especial mention should be made of those taking the leading parts including, the hero, Miss Alma Harmel, who acted the character of Valentine Brown; the heroine, Miss Corinne Hughes, representing Mrs. Phoebe Throssel; and Miss Lavine Jones, who took the part of Susan Throssel (an old maid sister of Phoebe). The plot is built around a family of old maids, in which family a man enters and a very interesting love affair is cleverly worked out, after a school had been established in which a number of girls acted as students. The cast was trained by Miss Glickler, head of the School of Expression and the entire production was very commendably presented.

DR. FOLEY ADDRESSES THE MINISTERIAL ASSOCIATION

That religion of itself is a cause of mental derangement was denied by Dr. Edward A. Foley, assistant superintendent of Jacksonville State hospital, Monday forenoon in an address to members of the Jacksonville Ministerial association, assembled at the Y. M. C. A. for the first meeting of a new year's work. Dr. Foley's subject was "Probable Causes of Mental Diseases", and in elaboration thereof it was emphasized that insanity, tho manifesting often in the form of religious delusion, has other causes underlying and is never due to religion alone.

The Rev. Myron L. Pontius, president of the association, was in the chair and Alva L. Snyder was secretary. Miss Katherine Olmsted will address the next meeting Monday, Jan. 3, on the subject, "Community Work for Children."

Youth Was Crushed By Falling Tree

It was a few months ago that a young man was chopping wood in the vicinity of Chandlerville. He had been at work for days and made good progress. Then on one unlucky day he felled a tree in such a way that as it came to the ground he was pinned beneath the trunk and both legs were broken. The nearest hospital where he could be cared for was in Jacksonville. He was brought here to Passavant hospital and for months was a patient in that institution. He had no money and no friends who were able to contribute towards his relief. His condition was such that much of the time he required the services of two nurses both night and day. He was given every care and attention that could have been accorded to a wealthy patient and eventually was able to leave the hospital. Nothing was paid to the hospital on his account except the regular county charge. For this young man the hospital meant everything and his case is only one of hundreds which are recorded.

TOTAL CONTRIBUTIONS NOW SAFELY PAID THE $25,000 MARK.

Enthusiasm Seen in Attitude of Workers at Monday Meeting—Will Return to Tasks Today with Increased Vigor—Chairman Reeve Lays Stress on Need—Four Hundred and Sixty Four Pledges Secured.

Reports presented at the Passavant campaign headquarters in Grace church last night showed 57 additional subscription by the men's teams totalling $1,691 and 133 subscriptions secured by the women's teams totalling $1,239.00. This made the total for the day $2,930.00 and the grand total to date $25,334.75. The total number of pledges is 464. The gathering at the church last night was much larger than for the previous sittings and the room was filled. More enthusiasm was apparent among the workers and the "I Will" spirit prevailed. John J. Reeve was the chairman and Rev. G. W. Flange was called upon to say grace. Mr. Reeve spoke very earnestly about the work which the hospital does and the necessity which exists for its maintenance and development. He said that the statistics show that here are 100,000 people resident of the community tributary to the hospital and said that when this fact was considered that the task of raising a fund of $100,000 seemed simple. Every citizen in Morgan, Scott, Cass and Greene counties should be interested and help in this work, he said. Members of the teams were urged to press their work with still greater zeal and not to feel discouraged by refusals. Mr. Reeve told of a number of instances where contributions had been secured after refusal to contribute had first been made.

Team Workers Talked.

After making his very earnest appeal the chairman called upon various other persons for brief remarks. Among those who spoke were Dr. George Stacy, Hugh P. Green, Frank Mallory, W. B. Miser, Rev. W. E. Sponts, Mrs. M. E. Havenhill, Miss Louise Holmes, Mrs. J. K. C. Pierson, Mrs. Keith Montgomery, Mrs. A. B. Williamson, Miss Ida B. Verner, Mrs. James H. Dasekin, Miss Faye Rodgers, Mrs. Clyde Knapp, Mrs. J. Frank Strawn, Miss Laura Allen, Mrs. Miller Weir, Mayor H. J. Rodgers and F. E. Farrell.

Many of the speakers told amusing stories of their experiences and all manifested a fine spirit of enthusiasm. It was very evident that they will return to the work today with even more earnestness and vigor than has been true during the preceding days.

YOUNG MAN HURT WHEN STREET CAR HITS FORD

Harold Young, East of the City, at Passavant Hospital—Accident Sunday on North Main Street.

In the act of driving across North Main street to put his car away in an auto shed belonging to M. C. Thompson, his brother-in-law, Harold Young, had his Ford car struck "sideways" by a rapidly moving north-bound street car. So great was the car's momentum that the wrecked automobile was carried along for some seventy feet before Lee Shawen, the motorman, could bring it to a stop. The accident happened Sunday afternoon at 5:15 o'clock.

Mr. Young, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Young, and residing east of the city, is at Passavant hospital suffering with a wrenched shoulder, cuts about the head and face, together with other bruises. No serious consequences are anticipated, according to Dr. Carl E. Black, attending surgeon. A wheel was knocked from the car, the wind shield was broken and the body of the car was badly wrecked.

Young says he did not hear the approaching car nor the motorman's song. He had his muffler cut out and would have had difficulty in hearing the warning, however promptly it may have been sounded.

MRS. EDWARD JUDSON'S HUSBAND DESERTS HER IN ST. LOUIS.

Miss Belva Oxford, An Employee Of the Jacksonville State Hospital Was Married In Louisiana, Mo., Wednesday—Unidentified Man Is Killed By Train May Be That Of Judson.

(Special to Journal.)

St. Louis, Dec. 6.—Mrs. Edward Judson, 25 years old, until recently a resident of Jacksonville, is being sheltered by the Young Woman's Christian Association, while search for her husband is being conducted. She was married in Louisiana, Mo., last Wednesday, having eloped from Jacksonville, where she was a nurse in the Jacksonville State hospital. Mrs. Judson, who was Miss Belva Oxford, said she had known Judson for several months and he finally persuaded her to go to Louisiana, and were married by a justice of the peace. They came to St. Louis from Louisiana, she said, and Judson disappeared Friday, after asking her for her money, $12, to pay for board at the hotel at which they were staying. She did not appeal to the police until Sunday and they sent her to the Y. W. C. A. authorities. Fearing the marriage might not have been legal they telegraphed to Louisiana and found that it had been performed by Justice of the Peace Armstrong. It was witnessed by the two hotel waitresses.

The matron of the Y. W. C. A. has telephoned to the girl's father, S. G. Oxford, of Cave-In-Rock, Ill., telling him of her predicament. It is considered probable that the body of an unidentified man, who was killed by an Iron Mountain train near here Saturday night, may prove to be that of Judson.

HENRY CUTHBERT TUNISON DIES IN CINCINNATI, OHIO

Well Known Map Publisher of Chicago and Former Resident of Jacksonville Passes Away at Age of 60 Years.

Word was received in the city Monday of the death of Henry Cuthbert Tunison, a former resident of Jacksonville and widely known map publisher of Chicago, who passed away Sunday night in Cincinnati, Ohio. His illness dates back over a period of three months.

Mr. Tunison was born in Tazewell county, Ill., on February 5, 1855. He removed with his parents to Greene county, Ill., when less than one year old. His boyhood was spent on the farm formerly occupied by his father Isaac C. Tunison, part of which farm is within the limits of the town of Roodhouse. When thirteen years of age Mr. Tunison started to canvass for maps. He later became a sub-agent having under him several employees and a short time later he began to publish maps on his own account. For a great many years he had his establishment in Jacksonville on East College avenue but on account of his growing business he moved his factory to Chicago some thirteen years ago, where he has since been, making his home in Lake Bluff, Ill. He was a man of unusual business ability and he had traveled extensively in the interest of his firm, having established houses in several of the larger cities of the United States and Canada and foreign countries. Relatives of deceased reside in Morgan, Greene and Tazewell counties.

J. G. Reynolds, undertaker, was notified by a brother, I. F. Tunison, that the body will be brought to Jacksonville, via St. Louis at 11:50 Wednesday noon and burial will be made in the family lot in Diamond Grove cemetery.

FARM PRICES.

Among sales recently recorded by Charles H. Story is that of the George Lewis farm to R. V. Scott. This is a farm of 60 acres lying about two miles west of the Point church and the price was about $200 per acre. This is a good piece of land with fair improvements. Another farm sale was that of Elijah Henry to Robert M. Henry of 90 acres in the vicinity of Nortonville. This price paid for this was near the $100 mark, the land being of about the same general quality as the other farms in that locality. At an earlier date J. H. Redburn purchased Mrs. Ferguson's farm of 32 acres located a short distance north of Jacksonville on the North Main street road, at $200 per acre.

FIGHT OVER MAN; TWO WOMEN ARRESTED.

Sallie Jones Rice and Bertha Hughey Get in Police Courts.

For the love of a man Sallie Jones Rice and Bertha Hughey fought Sunday and the result was that both landed in the county jail. Monday Sallie was fined $13.30 on the charge of disorderly conduct and paid the fine. Bertha Hughey was fined a like amount on a similar charge and in default of payment was languishing in the city prison Monday.

Sallie Jones Rice it seems had a man named "Slim" Jackson. "Slim" with the characteristic abandon that all sporting men seem to have become enamoured of the charms of Bertha Hughey. This led to jealousy and hard feeling and to giving of testimony for illegal liquor selling against Sallie. Despite Slim's snitching, however, Sallie continued to hold a warm place in her heart for him and likewise a feeling of hatred for the Hughey woman.

This finally culminated Sunday when the women met. They engaged in a fight and Hughey slashed Rice with a knife. After the battle they both headed for the police station. They told their tale to Chief Davis. The chief had them taken to the county jail and kept Sunday night and Monday they were arraigned on the charge of disorderly conduct in Justice Coons' court, each having gotten out a warrant against the other. In the meantime "Slim" is running at large and probably making eyes at some other woman and the belligerents and rivals for his affections are several dollars poorer and one probably will have to lay out the fine.

Some Topics of the Farm

FARMING IN OTHER DAYS

When I was 13 or 14 years old it was deemed wise to let me undertake the lighter parts of a man's work, such as plowing, plowing corn and the like. Of course, I was only a boy and could only expect a boys wages but the employer was that much ahead. Those were the good old days of the single and double shovel plow used for various purposes. A new piece of ground he had a peculiar implement known as the jumping shovel. It was a heavy, three cornered shovel, rigid to a stout frame; then a piece of steel two inches wide, half an inch thick and probably two feet long with one edge sharp, and one end pointed, was fastened to the plow beam, edge the handles and point extending down and touching the point of the shovel so that when the latter struck a root, instead of catching it would jump over the obstruction. For a new country this was very convenient as it helped get in a crop much sooner than it could have been accomplished in any other way. It fell to me to do some plowing in a newly cleared field and with an ordinary plow. The land in that region had yellow clay sub-soil so that cast iron plows could be used when one was unable to own one made of steel. They were cumbersome and awkward affairs but the hired man had no feelings to be respected and the implement must be used. In plowing of any kind only one line was used and the horse was trained so that when the line was pulled or he heard the word "haw" he would turn to the left and if the line was jerked or if he heard the word "gee" he would turn to the right. I have many a time seen four horse and six horse teams driven that way, the driver riding the near or left hand tongue horse and in the mountains I have seen ten and twelve horses or mules driven that way, the driver riding the left hand or pole horse managing the brake also, the latter being rigid with a long pole extending into the air and a rope attached to the top and held by the driver who could make the wheels slide at will going down a hill. It would take a long time to break some horses while others would learn rapidly and I have handled some so well trained that a line was hardly necessary the animals being guided by the "gee" and "haw".

The line was always hitched to the bridle of the left hand lead horse and a jockey stick was used to guide the other. It was a common stick about four feet long, attached to the collar of the left hand horse and to the bit of the right hand animal and so the guiding was fully accomplished. I have often wished I could forget some of the experiences of those early days. When a child of fifteen I worked for a driving man who would have his hands up at four in the morning and we did well if we managed to get to bed by eight or half past at night. It was in oats harvest and the grain had been cut and left in the swath a while and some rain had fallen on it making it very rough and hard to handle and more than once I left blood on the sheaf I was working and I began to wonder so he let me rake for one of the men a little while and then put me to binding again till it was done and then we went to the cornfield and I kept right up with the men who only receiving the magnificent sum of eight dollars a month for my work.

Threshing meant business in those days. I have many times helped where the wheat was piled on a floor and tramped out by horses tho it was not at all universal. The ground thrasher tho was largely used. It consisted simply of a cylinder set on the ground, attached to a horse power and driven for the work. The grain was fed into the throat of the machine and on the other side wheat, straw, chaff and dirt in plenty all came out together. Men stood there in the dirt, some raked away the straw for others to pitch up as the stack grew in size while others with scoop shovels took away to another pile the grain and chaff all together. Then came the hand fanning or windmill to separate the grain and chaff, one to turn the fans and the other to shovel in the material. I have turned those machines till almost ready to drop from exhaustion. The sale of those mills was quite an industry and men used to have wagons rigged with a long frame and then taken four or five miles at once and peddle them out to the farmers.

The thrasher and cleaner was looked on as the perfection of threshing machinery, an achievement in farming outfit that would never be improved. It was a horse killer but animals were cheap those days, and the men at the throat of the machine were generally assigned that delectable job and many a time I have been so covered with dust and dirt from working at that place that my complexion couldn't have been told from my appearance.

Both in threshing and harvesting, how we did detest the bearded wheat. It seemed as if those beards, with satanic ingenuity, found every weak or thin place in our clothes, every sore or tender spot of our anatomy and took position there for our torment. The language we used toward the men who introduced bearded wheat was neither mild nor tender.

One of the last jobs of summer was laying by the corn crop. Every first class farmer prided himself on deep plowing and the final task was to split the middles and leave a deep canal between the rows and with what complacency would a thrifty cultivator survey a weedless field with the gutter between the rows and could Col. Fulkerson have appeared on the scene and advised shallow, level cultivation for the latter part of the season he would have been deemed a fit subject for the insane hospital.

We had some pastimes such as they were and log rolling was one of them. When a man had a piece of timber to be cleared he would preferably cut out the underbrush and small trees and burn them and girdle the bark of the larger ones and thus make what was termed a "deadening". Often in a year or two the place would be somewhat useful as a woods pasture and later the trees would be cut down, chopped into suitable lengths and then the neighbors all around were invited to the log rolling. The boys would come in good numbers and usually two or three yokes of oxen were used and the logs piled up to be burned. I have seen thousands of cords of good wood thus burned as there was no market for it. Good cord wood was sold and delivered at from a dollar to a dollar and a quarter and choice hickory, body wood, well seasoned, a dollar and a half a cord.

STEER FEEDING RATION.

(From Wallace's Farmer.)

An Illinois correspondent writes: "What will be the cheapest and best ration for forty-three head of 1,000 pound steers which I expect to start feeding December 1st, and which I will feed from January 1st to some time in April. For roughage, I have plenty of clover hay of fair quality, and about fifteen tons of our own alfalfa, of good quality. We will have to buy some corn, but most of it will be soft, and pretty high in price. Will it pay to buy cottonseed meal at $33.50 per ton, delivered? This cottonseed meal is 41 per cent protein. How much would you feed per steer daily? Of what value are oats for steers? We have about 200 bushels, which heated some in the bin. Or would it be better to sell the oats for what we can get, and feed cottonseed meal? Last year we followed your advice, and fed two pounds of cottonseed meal to each steer daily, in connection with twenty pounds of corn and 500 meal and clover hay, and had splendid gains. But the cottonseed meal last year cost $26.50 per ton, of the 41 per cent protein grade."

Cottonseed meal is high this year, while corn averages lower than last year. It will not pay to feed so much cottonseed meal this year as last year, but it will nevertheless pay to feed considerable amounts of it. The average of a number of Illinois and Indiana experiments indicate that each hundred pound of cottonseed meal will save, in the feeding of fattening two-year-old steers, about 100 pounds of shelled corn and 90 pounds of clover hay. In other words, with prices as ordinarily prevailing, cottonseed meal is worth around $40 per ton, but not only does cottonseed meal save corn and hay, it also increases the rate of gain by from one-third to one-half pound per steer daily. We suggest that our correspondent feed about one and one-half pounds of cottonseed meal per steer daily. We do not know what he can get for his oats, but we suspect that it will pay to sell his 20 bushels of oats and buy cottonseed meal. Pound for pound, oats are worth almost as much as corn for fattening steers, especially during the early part of the feeding period. But since oats always sell for more per pound than corn, they are very little used for fattening steers.

HAS GOOD DROVE OF HOGS.

James Middleton of the Joy Prairie neighborhood has more than one hundred hogs on his farm of varying sizes. While there is considerable cholera in that neighborhood, he does not fear it very much as all the hogs on his place have been vaccinated. He has followed the vaccination rule for the past three years and all the hogs raised on his farm have been given the double treatment when they weighed about 50 lbs. At this time the expense is much less than if the work is done later. Thus far Mr. Middleton has no reason for feeling a lack of confidence in the vaccination treatment. Of the hundred head now on the farm, thirty are on full feed.

ATHLETE VISITING HERE.

George Smith a former high school student and a graduate of the class of 1904 is in the city for a visit with friends. He was probably the greatest all round athlete the school ever had. He was a star football player, a splendid runner, and to this day holds the record for the running broad jump. Smith since graduation has been traveling with minstrel companies as a trap drummer. He also has been with the Williams and Walker company. Recently he has been playing with an orchestra in a Chicago theater.

Mr. Smith was married about a year ago and is accompanied by his wife. They are at present guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Patterson.

NEW PRIMARY TEACHER.

The school authorities of Murrayville have announced that Miss Ethel Smith of Jacksonville will succeed Miss Mabel Hart, as teacher in the primary room of the schools. Miss Hart will continue to teach until the Christmas holidays and her marriage as formerly announced will take place during the last week of December.

EAT A SQUARE MEAL AND NOT FEAR INDIGESTION

There are hundreds of people in Jacksonville who were not the least bit surprised when they read in the Journal that Coover & Shreve were selling Mi-o-na on a guarantee to refund the money in case it did not relieve. This remarkable dyspepsia remedy will relieve the worst case of indigestion, headache, dizziness, or the general played-out condition that afflicts every one suffering with stomach trouble. Mi-o-na does not simply relieve, it aims to cure.

Coover & Shreve can tell you of many well known people in this city who this remedy has restored to health, often after they have tried many other methods of treatment with little or no benefit. No other dyspepsia remedy has made so large a percentage of cures as Mi-o-na. It is so large that Coover & Shreve stand ready to refund the price to any customer whom it does not help.

The best kind of advertising is the praise of a pleased customer, and there are hundreds in Jacksonville today praising Mi-o-na because it does what it is advertised to do.

A few months ago they could eat nothing without wondering what the result would be. Since using Mi-o-na, they eat what they want and when they want with no fear of suffering. This medicine comes in the form of a small tablet and is very pleasant to take. It speedily and permanently relieves almost all forms of stomach trouble and is the only one sold under a positive guarantee without any restriction, to refund the money if it does not relieve. This is a good time to get well and you ought to take advantage of Coover & Shreve's offer.—Advertisement.

INAUGURATE KENTUCKY GOVERNOR

Frankfort, Ky., Dec. 7—Augustus Owsley Stanley, former congressman and democratic victor in the closest gubernatorial contest in the history of the state, at noon today was inaugurated Governor of Kentucky for four years.

Twenty-five thousand Kentuckians from every city and hamlet in the state were massed around a platform erected at the entrance to the grounds of the State Capital when Shackelford Miller, Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals, administered the oath of office.

In his inaugural address Governor Stanley pledged himself to reduce the state debt; abolish abuses in the various departments; promote educational interests, and advance the good roads movement.

The inauguration was a celebration of a democratic victory the throngs of interested persons, who poured into the little capital city throughout the morning were not made up alone of members of that party.

Prominent in the assemblage was Edwin P. Morrow, of Somerset, republican, whom Mr. Stanley defeated by a plurality of 471 votes. More than 300,000 votes were cast in the election November 2.

Frankfort was in gala attire and the ceremonies incident to the inauguration were conducted on a more elaborate scale than ever before. Hundreds of friends from Henderson, Mr. Stanley's home, came on a special train, while the dozen or more democratic clubs of Louisville were represented by two thousand members and friends who came on three special trains.

The inaugural parade moved away from the Capitol Hotel shortly before noon with more than 6,000 persons in automobiles and on foot in the procession.

Governor James B. McCreary, who today retired from office, escorted the Governor-elect to his automobile.

Governor McCreary, for three years president of the American Peace and Arbitration League, declined an invitation from Henry Ford to become a member of the peace delegation that sailed from New York, Dec. 4 on the Oscar II, in order to be present at the inauguration of Governor Stanley today.

The inauguration ball will be held in the Capitol Hotel ball room tonight.

DISCIPLES OF CHRIST PLAN DOCTRINAL CAMPAIGN

C. L. De Pew Attending Meeting at Cincinnati in Preparation for Congress Next Summer.

Clarence L. DePew has gone to Cincinnati, Ohio, to attend the meeting of the committee appointed last summer at Hammond, Ind., to arrange for a series of church conventions during the coming summer.

Five representative men of the disciples of Christ make up the committee, whose sessions were announced for Monday and today. Matters of doctrine will be discussed, and the congress which it is proposed to hold in various parts of the country will be along lines laid down by the committee at Hammond last summer. The Hammond Congress proved so successful that it was deemed practicable to carry out the idea on an enlarged scale and to make a doctrinal campaign of much broader compass.

Besides Mr. DePew, the committee consists of P. H. Welsh, emeritus of Canton, Ohio; J. E. Sturgis, Mansfield, Ohio; W. S. Buckman of Union City, Ind., and E. J. Meacham of Cincinnati, Ohio.

Ernest Strawn, Henry Strawn, Wesley Robertson and Bert Davenport of Alexander, went Monday to Naples for a short hunting trip.

STUBBORN ECZEMA HEALED BY AMOLOX

We are daily receiving letters of praise from people who have been cured by Amolox. Many of them tell how, for years, they have tried different remedies and doctored in the vain effort to find relief. Some become discouraged and lose all hope of ever being cured. E. R. Frisbee, 187 Sycamore St., Mansfield, O., writes: "Our baby's face was covered with eczema scales, sores and scabs. She was a pitiable sight. We tried everything. Took her to Pittsburgh doctors but were unable to find any relief until we used Amolox. It cured her within a short time."

Amolox ointment will quickly heal pimples on the face, red nose, and minor skin troubles. Chronic cases of dry or moist scaly eczema requires both the ointment and liquid to effect a cure. At all drug stores. Trial size, 50c. Recommended and guaranteed by Cover & Shreve.—Adv.

SCHOOL PROPERTY HAS HIGH TOTAL VALUE

WORTH $339,250 ACCORDING TO THE INVENTORY JUST COM-PILED.

All Holdings of the System Listed Carefully—High School Work Reviewed—W. C. Springgate Will Head Commercial Department—
Christmas Holidays Dec. 23 to January 3rd.

The Board of Education met in regular session in the council chamber Monday evening. All members were present, President Rodgers presiding, R. L. Pyatt clerk. There was considerable business transacted. One of the most important things was the presentation of the report of R. A. Gates of an inventory of the school property. This inventory is a most comprehensive one and it gives in detail the total value of land and buildings and equipment. Some of the main figures of Mr. Gates' inventory are given below, the total for land and buildings being $339,250.

Member Clampt presented a report for the teachers and salaries committee in which he reviewed in detail the progress of high school work in the last two decades and pointed out the number of new courses that had been added to the curriculum. This necessitated the added expense of additional teachers. The report recommended the appointment of W. C. Springgate to take charge of the commercial department at a salary of $100 per month to begin Jan. 1, 1916. Also the appointment of Miss Edna L. Cox to take the place of Miss Catherine Russell in the Washington school at a salary of $35 per month for January and $50 per month for the remainder of the term.

The Christmas Vacation.
The matter of dismissing school for the Christmas holidays also came up for action. Member Rogerson made a motion that the schools be dismissed Dec. 20 and start Jan. 3. There was no second to the motion. Member Rogerson in making the motion said that a great many boys and girls worked in the stores during the holidays and this would give them an opportunity to take up their work. Other members were opposed to so much vacation. Supt. Collins also said that it would be almost impossible to take such a long vacation and make the 180 days required by the State university. Member Clampt seconded by Member Rogerson made a motion that school be dismissed Dec. 23 and start Jan. 3. The motion carried.

Text Book Changes.
Member Rogerson for the committee on text books made a report. The report stated that Miss Lusk and Supt. Collins had been making a thorough investigation of the matter and the recommendations were made on their findings. No change was recommended in the second and third grades. In the fourth, fifth and sixth the Holt and Cummings readers were recommended in place of Lights of Literature. No changes were recommended in the seventh and eighth grades. For arithmetics the report recommended the adoption of the Wentworth and Smith book.

Member Rogerson was of the opinion that people needed their money more at the present time to buy something to eat and clothing than to buy books. He was in favor of postponing the adoption of the books until the beginning of the next school year.

Reports Presented.
The resignation of Miss Catherine L. Russel, teacher in Washington school, was presented and on motion of Member Rogerson it was accepted. The report of Charles B. Graft, treasurer of the board, was read and showed a balance December 1 of $401.07 in the general fund and $339.13 in the special fund.

Supt. Collins' report showed the following daily attendance:
Jefferson school—329.
Lafayette school—327.
Franklin school—246.
Morton school—118.
Washington school—319.
High school—394.
David Prince school—318.
Open Air school—38.

Member Rogerson for the finance committee said he had consulted Mr. M. E. Dunlap relative to cashing anti-trust warrants and Mr. Dunlap would give an answer after consultation with an attorney.

Member Clampt, chairman of the teachers and salaries committee, made the report given below.

PEORIA WOMAN TELLS EXPERIENCE

Mrs. W. L. McClellan, of Peoria, suffered torture from indigestion, gas, belching and other symptoms of stomach trouble. She spent large sums of money for doctors' advice and medicine. Still her condition did not improve. She found relief, wonderful surprising relief in a drug store window. This is her story, she tells it.

"I suffered so from indigestion and colicky pains that at times I was completely incapacitated for my household work. I saw a window display of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy and decided to purchase a bottle, which I did. I have taken only one bottle and the results have been really wonderful. I have not had a pain in my stomach since, and let me say that for the first time in many, many months, two days following I have had a natural movement of the bowels. I feel I cannot say enough for the remarkable virtues of your remedy."

Mayr's Wonderful Remedy gives permanent results for stomach, liver and intestinal ailments. Eat as much and whatever you like. No more distress after eating, pressure of gas in the stomach and around the heart. Get one bottle of your druggist now and try it on an absolute guarantee—if not satisfactory money will be returned.

For sale by druggists everywhere.

Member Rogerson for the committee on text books recommended the book change mentioned above to become effective Jan. 1, 1916. Roll call was taken on the motion and the vote was 3 and one against, Member Rogerson voting in the negative.

Victor Bergstrom was present and presented a complaint to the board about his boy getting hurt by the overturning of a radiator at the Franklin school building. Mr. Bergstrom was of the opinion that the accident was due to negligence on the part of some one, either the board or education or Mr. Gauss, who is doing the work. The matter was referred to Member Wells to investigate.

Inventory of Property.
R. A. Gates then presented the inventory of school property and on motion of Member Clampt, seconded by Member Rogerson, the report was accepted and the clerk was instructed to get a book to carry on the work as suggested by Mr. Gates.

The clerk was also instructed to have the warrants for teachers salaries ready by Dec. 22. There being no further business the board on motion adjourned.

HIGH SCHOOL STATEMENT
By Dr. Clampt.
Mr. President and Members of the Board of Education:

As chairman of the Teachers' committee, I desire at this time to report to you the physical condition and some present needs of our high school in order that some immediate action might be taken, so as to relieve the distress and keep our growing institution within the high ranks it now stands among the colleges and state associations.

The secondary schools in this country, especially the public high school, have learned years ago, the importance of an independent educational institution. There will no doubt continue to be hereafter, as there have been in the past, "preparatory schools," that is, schools whose aims and work are determined wholly by college entrance requirements; but, in general, the secondary school is not destined to be a preparatory school. It will aim not merely to prepare for college, it will aim to prepare for life itself.

It is now generally recognized that the high school exerts a powerful stimulus for good upon the schools below; that it holds up before the young, ideals of higher and broader scholarship; that it appeals to the ambition of the young at a critical time, when it is important that inferior ambitions shall be forestalled.

Good high school work should fit alike for college or for life. Whatever subjects are fit to make a young man ready to pursue with intelligence and vigor, some of the higher studies of a college, should also prepare him to grasp with rapidity, the details of any business or mechanical occupation to which he may be compelled to resort; and should enable him to prosecute that business with diligence and alertness. It is now quite generally recognized by the colleges and scientific schools that whatever subject is well and thoroughly taught in public high schools taken together as a class, taught in a way to inspire interest and train mental power, ought to count toward admission to college or scientific schools; inasmuch as all the colleges or scientific schools need as material young men and women who have developed mental powers in proportion to their age.

"Teachers are being better trained and given more freedom in their work; they realize the need of preparation for their work; they recognize that merely keeping school is no longer fashionable nor even tolerable in intelligent communities; they feel more fully the vital demands of childhood, the increasing opportunities for professional improvement and growth."

The appearance and sanitary conditions of the school houses are steadily improving, health and beauty are considered; books and apparatus and courses of study reflect more fully the progressive spirit of the age. In every good school the center of interest is the welfare of the child and not the course of study. Mechanism is giving way to the subtle possibilities of character; conceit and pride of attainments are rapidly disappearing; the schools have their faces toward the future and not the past. The history of education and its noblest lessons never were more familiar or helpful and inspiring.

Methods of education should improve. In the shops of our great institutions or the laboratories of factories, scientific thought is skillfully applied to make better and more economical adjustment, and discover new combinations of materials for improvement of color and texture. On every hand are the fruits of invention and skill. Surely there should be no less zeal in the culture of the human soul.

The growth of our high school during the past fifteen years is due mostly to the urgent demands of the public and the absolute necessity of the school board to meet the requirements. The result of which has greatly increased the cost of maintaining our schools. The statistics for the past fifteen years as to the relative cost of running our high school in proportion to the increase in attendance and teaching force will corroborate my statement in saying that the boards of education

MRS. LOUISA BURNS IS ONE OF CITY'S OLDEST RESIDENTS

Was Born in Scotland Eighty-five Years Ago—Long an Invalid.

Mrs. Louisa H. Burns, whose home is at 322 South Church street, was eighty-five years of age Sunday. It was in Edinburgh, Scotland, on December 5, 1830, that Louisa Gibson was born to Mr. and Mrs. William Gibson. Later in that year the family set sail for the United States, the land of promise. They were for a time in New York City and then went to Pamapo, N. Y., which was the home for some years. Then the family moved to St. Louis county, Missouri and settled on land purchased from the government. There the child Louisa grew to young womanhood and she was married to J. H. Burns.

Subsequent to the death of her husband, Mrs. Burns and her daughter, Miss Mollie Burns, became residents of Jacksonville and for a number of years the family home has been at 322 South Church street. For eleven years now she has been an invalid and for three years it has been necessary for the daughter to devote all her time to the care of the invalid. Although so weak in body, Mrs. Burns maintains her mental faculties and her spirit has not been changed by her long affliction. She has always had a great interest in those who were not as fortunate as herself and scores of people can attest to kindnesses done them by Mrs. Burns. Her cheerful spirit has continued thru the years and now she is receiving the reward of having been helpful to others, for in the days of weakness there have come manifestations of love and friendship from many.

Mrs. Burns' eighty-fifth birthday was made notable by many remembrances, with flowers and inquiries.

Corn Limpers! Use "Gets-It" and Smile!

Corns Come Right Off, Clean and Quick! You Needn't Limp, or Fuss With Your Corns
Any More!

What's the use of spoiling a good time for yourself by limping around with fierce corns? It's one of the easiest things in the world, now, to get rid of them. "Gets-It" does it.

"Those Corns Come Right Off, Clean As a Whistle, by Using 'Gets-It'!"

the new way. That's why "Gets-It" has become the corn remedy of America, the highest selling corn remedy in the world, preferred by millions. Do you remember that too-eating saive you tried, that sticky tape, that too-bundling bandage, the gouging you've done with knives, razors and scissors? Well now, forget them all. No more fussing, no more pain. Whenever you use simple, easy "Gets-It" the corn is doomed, sure. So is every callus, wart or bunion. Never cut corns or calluses, it makes them grow that much faster and increases the danger of blood poison. No cutting is necessary by using "Gets-It." Use it tonight and end your corny existence.

"Gets-It" is sold by all druggists. 25c a bottle, or sent direct by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago.

Sold in Jacksonville and recommended as the world's best corn remedy—by Armstrong's Drug Store—J. A. Obermeyer.

CHAMPION BONEHEAD
From the Albany Evening Journal.
Some days ago the captain of a fishing schooner found the headless corpse of a woman off the New England coast. He buried it at sea, with all the clothing upon it, thus making it impossible to ascertain the woman's identity and to make investigation to ascertain whether a crime had been committed.

In a Pennsylvania town on Saturday a photographer who was taking landscape views saw the picture of a man attacking another with a knife focused upon the ground plate of the camera. Instead of hastily snapping the picture, he lost his head and fell down an embankment with his camera.

The victim of the assault was picked up soon afterward, seriously wounded. His assailant had escaped and his identity is unknown.

What has become of old-fashioned common sense and presence of mind? Still, the title of champion bonehead easily goes to the captain, for he had ample time to think.

TAKE "CASCARETS" IF HEADACHY, BILIOUS AND CONSTIPATED

Best for Liver and Bowels, Bad Breath, Bad Colds, Sour Stomach.

Get a 10 cent box.
Sick headache, biliousness, coated tongue, head and nose clogged up with a cold—always trace this to torpid liver; delayed, fermenting food in the bowels or sour, gassy stomach.

Poisonous matter clogged in the intestines, instead of being cast out of the system is re-absorbed into the blood. When this poison reaches the delicate brain tissue it causes congestion and that dull, throbbing, sickening headache.

Cascarets immediately cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels.
A Cascaret tonight will surely straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10c box from your druggist means your head clear, stomach sweet and your liver and bowels regular for months.

FOR BRONCHITIS, COUGHS, BRONCHIAL ASTHMA AND WHOOPING COUGH

Cheapest Remedy Made at Home—128 Teaspoonful for 25 Cents.

The first 300 persons calling at M. E. Gilbert's will be entitled to a regular 50c bottle of Schiffmann's New Concentrated Expectorant for half price (25c) by presenting the coupon below, properly signed. With a view to giving those who have not yet used this excellent remedy an opportunity of trying it, in the treatment of bronchial affections, including Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Croup, Severe Coughs, Colds and Hoarseness, to prove its merits, these druggists are willing to allow the public the profit which it would otherwise make and the proprietor is willing to lose money on the same, so as to give them an opportunity of trying it, at partially their expense, knowing it will be found the best medicine ever used by anyone.

Even thou not in need of a Cough or Cold Medicine at the present time, it will pay to buy now, as some such medicine is sure to be required before the winter is over, but this remedy cannot be obtained at less than full price again. Besides making this reduction, these druggists guarantee this remedy just the same as Dr. Schiffmann's famous Asthmador, and will return them oney in every single instance if it does not give perfect satisfaction and even more—if it is not found the best remedy ever used for any of the above complaints.

This excellent remedy is sufficiently concentrated so that 50 cents' worth, when mixed at home, with simply one pint of granulated sugar and one-half pint of water (according to printed directions) makes a whole family supply (128 teaspoonful) of little bottles of the old, regular road-made kinds, of doubtful merit, and without a guarantee, usually average 20 to 22 teaspoonful.

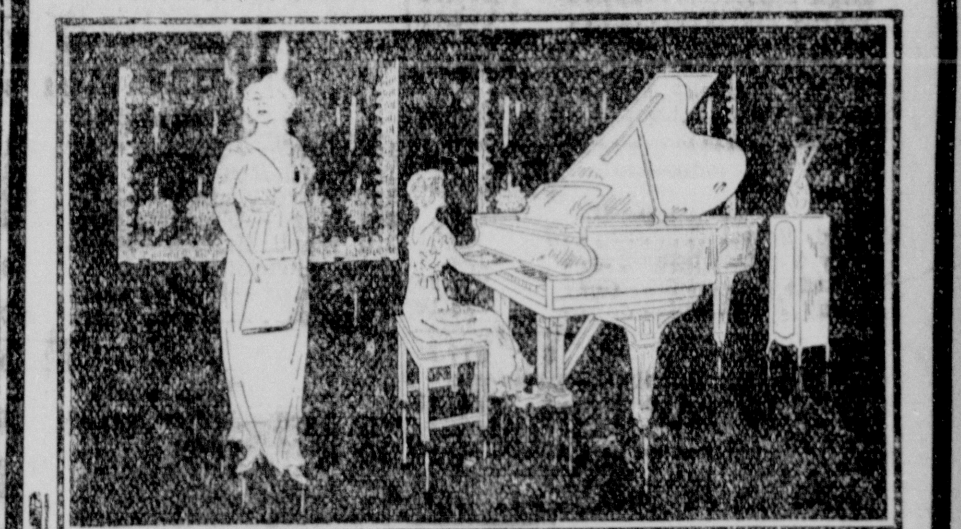

It is prepared from strictly harmless plants, contains absolutely no chloroform, opium, morphine or any narcotic or injurious drugs which do most cough remedies, and can therefore be given to children with perfect safety. It is pleasant to take and children are fond of it. Besides absolutely no risk is run in buying this remedy whatever, on the guarantee of the above, well-known, reliable druggists who will refund your 25c if it is not found the best remedy ever used.

If a neighbor or friend could be induced to divide and pay for half the quantity, the cost would thus only be about 12c to each.

TWENTY-FIVE CENT COUPON—No. 2.
This coupon and 25c is good for one (only) 50c bottle of Schiffmann's New Concentrated Expectorant at M. E. Gilbert's if your name and address is filled in.

SCHOOL PROPERTY HAS HIGH TOTAL PROPERTY

tion of the past and at the present time have used judiciously the funds of the school.

In early times, the high school course generally consisted of mathematics, history, English and some of the foreign languages. In other words, the education provided was proper only for certain classes, such as ministers, doctors, lawyers and teachers. Then came the complaint of the business man, that the high school did not fit his son for life work; and that was answered by placing in the curriculum the subjects of science and commerce.

Next came the farmer and demanded a suitable course for his boy; and that was answered by the agricultural course. And last, but not least, the artisan demanded a proper education for his child, and we added to our curriculum the important courses, namely, manual training and domestic science.

So you see that the high school of today does not only have each course more complete than formerly but there are many more courses included in the curriculum; so that the modern high school for all plans of life work.

During the last two years, our high school has added to its curriculum the following classes:

4 classes in writing and spelling.
1 class in commercial law.
1 class in economics.
1 class in sociology.
1 class in civics.
2 classes in public speaking.
6 additional classes in typewriting.

And yet so well has this work been distributed among our willing and efficient teachers, that we have only increased their number by one during the last year.

Our high school teachers are now teaching the full number of hours permitted by the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, and a number of them have classes larger than are permitted by this association, which is due not only to the increase in the number of classes, but also to the increase in the number of pupils, which is about 50 in number.

The North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools demanded there should be about one teacher for every twenty-five pupils, and since our school has increased about fifty more than at any time last year, I recommend to this board the employing of another teacher for the commercial department of the high school for the remainder of the school year; so that these large classes can be divided and the new classes formed therefrom be given to this person.

The cost of starting and maintaining the Open Air school has added greatly to the burdens of the board of education; the cost of fuel, clothing, beds, medicine, food and teachers has increased the expenses of the board of education several hundred dollars each month, and yet there seem to be such a demand for this school from many of our thoughtful citizens that the board could not very well deny the request. As a people, we believe in the sacredness of human life and conserve it as the greatest asset of our nation. It has been stated by some authorities that in some states of the Union that one-half of the deaths of the people are due to preventable diseases; that the annual economic loss of lives in the United States thru accident, neglect and carelessness is the exorbitant sum, one billion, five-hundred million.

Many Defective Children. From past experience the board of education are aware that a large per cent of the school children are defective either from eye strain, adenoids, diseased tonsils, bad teeth, deafness, malnutrition and skin diseases. We, therefore, realize the value of health supervision and very much favor the same.

The extra cost of the equipment of the David Prince school, without the necessary levy by the previous counsel has compelled the board to use the money of the general fund for that purpose.

Our school buildings, tho not all modern are well equipped with some of the latest appliances, heating apparatus and lighting system in most cases are of the best. The ventilation can be improved upon with much benefit to the pupil by the addition of the window ventilation.

The board has recently been at an expense of axing and repairing the basements of some of the ward schools, that the space might be used to an advantage and give more vacant space up stairs as the new state law compels the board to have a course in physical education for every boy and girl.

Since our recent inventory of all the property belonging to the public schools of the city of Jacksonville, we find as a whole, that we have one of the best school systems, well supplied with apparatus, anywhere to be found. And the best of it is that we have no outstanding bonds to be paid as is the case in a great many places.

My object in making this talk about the schools of Jacksonville is to show the people how we have spent the money for the schools and the reasons why we have spent it; and that it is no fault of ours that these schools, especially the high school, have cost the people more money; that the additional teachers in the high school has been brought about by the increase in the number and the additional courses added to the curriculum, which increase is due to the demand of the people and the requirements of the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

High School Growth.
The growth of our high school since 1898 is best explained by the following statistics:

Teachers	Salaries	No. month students
1898	6	$ 422 203
1903	8	605 250
1908	12	1085 300
1915	18	1961 400

However, with these additional increases both as to the growth of our high school and the expenses of running the same, it has not cost the public any more; as the limit of taxation has existed for the past twenty years so far as the general fund is concerned.

I, therefore, in conclusion, recommend to this board the employment of W. C. Springate as a commercial teacher in the high school for the remainder of the school year at a salary of $100 per month.

I have also been informed thru the superintendent that Miss Catherine Russell has informed him that she desires to give up her position as a teacher in the Fourth Ward of the public school of Jacksonville to take effect the first of January, 1916. I, therefore, recommend to this board the appointment of Edna L. Cox to take her room for the month of January as a substitute teacher at $35 and for each school month thereafter for this school year as a regular teacher at $50 per month.

GOLDEN HARVEST SOON DUE FOR INVESTORS OF AMERICA.

Dividends and Profits to be Divided at End of Year About $650,000,000, Is Estimate.

New York, Dec. 2.—(Special).—America's big army of investors will truly roll in wealth in the next few months. A Wall street house estimates that December and January dividends and interest disbursements will reach the enormous total of $350,000,000, and on top of that the profits to be divided, including wholesale and retail firms are roughly put at $300,000,000, making a total in all of more than $650,000,000. Much of this will go out in the Christmas and New Year's mail. Two million shareholders and partners will get slices of this great melon.

At the same time the American farmer will realize profits of something like $325,000,000 in these two months, so that all disbursements should run around $1,185,000,000 or nearly $50 per family for the entire United States. Down in the financial district the employees are looking for a fat Christmas, for Wall street, prosperous, has no equal for generosity.

STOMACH UPSET?

Get at the Real Cause—Take
Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics, or trying to pinch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, away goes indigestion and stomach troubles. If you have a bad taste in your mouth, tongue coated, appetite poor, lazy, don't-care feeling, no ambition or energy, troubled with undigested food, you should take Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. They do the work without griping, cramps or pain.

Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief, so you can eat what you like. At 10c and 25c per box. All druggists. The Olive Tablet Company, Columbus, O.

BEECHAM'S PILLS

They have achieved the distinction of being the most widely used medicine in the world, because millions of people have found them dependable, speedy and sure in their action on stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels.

Compounded from vegetable products, Beecham's Pills are free from harmful minerals and dangerous drugs. They do not promote the phlegmy habit—do not irritate the bowels. Should be taken by every member of the family at the first sign of illness—so mild and effective that they are good for the aged, and for the ills of childhood, are deposit settling in the part. This interferes with normal circulation, presses on the nerves and gradually destroys the functions of the organ, causes irritation of the brain and nervous system. He claims that if you can remove this disease deposit, restore normal circulation and relieve pressure on the nerves, most chronic diseases can be cured, no matter in which organ it is located or how long standing, if the treatment is used before the tissues are too badly destroyed.

He has had great success in curing many old chronic cases where other treatments failed. He believes that he can cure almost any case of rheumatism, either acute or chronic. It relieves all curable forms of kidney trouble, bladder trouble, or weakness of these organs. This treatment gives almost immediate relief of dyspepsia, indigestion, fermentation, constipation, liver troubles; it cures most forms of blood disease, chronic skin trouble and nervous diseases. He wants every person suffering from any of these troubles to call on him at the hotel this trip. He will be glad to explain fully all about this system of treatment and tell you frankly whether or not in his opinion your case is curable free of charge. If you suffer with any of these chronic troubles you cannot afford to miss this opportunity. Dr. Gable is making visits here regularly each month and wants to treat as many people as possible in and around Jacksonville. In order to prove, in as many cases as possible, the great success he is having with this system of treatment. His hours will be from 9 to 12 and 1 to 5 and 7 to 8. Ask for Dr. Gable. ## WORLD'S MARKET NEWS

BUYING MOVEMENT IN FINAL HOUR IMPARTS STRENGTH TO LIST

Dealings Are Light With Frequent Periods of Absolute Inertia Until Near End.

New York, Dec. 6.—In its outstanding features today's market was largely a repetition of last week's dull and irregular sessions. Dealings were light with frequent periods of absolute inertia until the final hour when a broad and general buying movement in standard railway shares, notably New York Central and the Harriman imparted decided strength to the entire list.

Gains of 2 to 7 points in United States, Adams and American express shares offered a marked contrast to the weakness of those stocks some months ago. Coppers, fertilizers, department store shares and erstwhile favorites in the war division were 1 to 3 points over recent quotations.

Allis-Chalmers preferred rose 2 to 3 1/2, a new record; the advance coinciding with the resumption of dividends that stock together with partial payment of deferred disbursements.

First place in activity was held by United States Steel, that stock making an extreme gain of 3 1/2 at $7, but Bethlehem Steel was again quoted.

United Fruit was pressed for sale, although its annual statement disclosed a surplus of $2,973,000 for the fiscal year, in place of a deficit in 1914. Total sales amounted to 562,000 shares.

Lower rates for short time money were accepted as a corollary of the unprecedented banking supplies at all reserve centers.

Western railroads reported a larger volume of freight and greater diversification of traffic. The Burlington road showed a net increase of $724,000 for October, while Norfolk & Western gained virtually $1,000,000.

***** CORRESPONDENCE OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS *****

Tokio, Dec. 7.—One of the outgrowths of the coronation of the Japanese Emperor is a renewed interest in the origin of the Japanese people and in that connection arrival here of Dr. Frederick Starr, of the University of Chicago, to resume his studies of the much attention. Dr. Starr is regarded as a foremost authority on the anthropology of Japan and along anthropological and ethnological lines. He is especially well informed in regard to the Ainu, the Japanese aborigines.

While in Japan Dr. Starr will live the life of a Japanese. He contemplates paying particular attention to photographic work in an effort to round out his already large series of pictures illustrating the life and culture of the island empire.

He will continue his study of the Buddhist sects and will visit the most important Shinto shrines that he has not seen; he hopes also to complete his investigations of Japanese symbolism, upon which he has been engaged several years. In Korea he plans to make visits to the more famous Buddhist temples and monasteries which he has long had in mind. He will continue to gather Korean riddles and proverbs, of which he has already a considerable collection.

Finally Dr. Starr desires to study further the administrative work of the Japanese in Korea, a work which he has watched with interest ever since Japan annexed that land.

"Among other things," he said, "I shall make a pilgrimage on foot from Tokyo to Kyoto along the famous Tokaido highway, stopping as often as possible at the old stations and inns."

Dr. Starr had made investigation tours in the Congo Free State, Mexico, and the Philippine Islands and is an authority on Liberia.

Alexandria, Egypt, Dec. 1.—The enforcement of the new law requiring the use of the Turkish language as the principle teaching medium has been postponed so far as the American protestant college in Syria is concerned. This was obtained by the president of the college, who made a personal appeal to the authorities at Constantinople. Turkish will be taught as a secondary language until the students become thoroughly grounded in it.

Taiwan, Formosa, Oct. 27.—The number of natives condemned to death for insurrection has now reached the total of 668. About 430 natives have been sentenced to prison for various terms.

The death sentences, most of which have already been carried out, are expected by the authorities to have a salutary effect in discouraging revolutionary plots throughout Formosa.

Berlin, Oct. 28.—Cotton sewing thread has become so scarce that the military authorities have announced officially that within a short time certain exceptions will be made to the order issued last August forbidding the production of thread out of cotton.

Copenhagen, Nov. 15.—Remarkable reports are in circulation here in the Danish Capital regarding the treatment of the Danish population in the north of Schleswig-Holstein, the German province which borders on Denmark and which was formerly Danish territory. There are still over a hundred thousand inhabitants of Danish extraction and of Danish tongue, commonly known as South Jutlanders in this German territory and ever since they came under Prussian rule there have been charges that the Danes suffered persecution, although for some years before the outbreak of the European war the trouble had nearly ceased. It is now charged that the Danes are meeting with new affronts, which are bitterly resented since a great number of the Danes have fought with great bravery and distinction as part of the German army in the present war. It is said that German commanders have been drawing up certain black lists of the Danish South Jutlanders, and that these persons are being punished with a severity out of proportion to the offences committed.

When war began, South Jutland, or the North of the province of Schleswig-Holstein, was placed under a military rule which superseded the authority of the high bailiff. One of the first measures taken by this military command was to send 300 South Jutlanders to prison. It is charged that many of these persons were awakened in the middle of the night and rushed off to the jail scantily clad. It is declared that the arrests were made on tenuous and imaginative evidence, such as the fact that a large number of fishermen who were arrested were put in prison because they possessed boats in which it was thought that men eligible for military service would try to escape. Many of these fishermen were over 70 years old, and one of these old men, who has four sons and three sons-in-law serving in the German army, complains that he was kept for six days in a prison cell on most meagre prison fare. Most of the prisoners taken at this time were kept in jail for a month.

Danish newspapers in the province are subjected to the most rigid censorship and one of these papers, "Heldna!" was suppressed for eight days because it failed to mention the birthday of the German Emperor, according to the editors who added that their protests that the Emperor had expressed the desire to pass the day quietly did not serve to move the authorities from their stand in the matter. The censors work is also seen in the fact that they deleted an item in one of the papers which referred to the Italian Crown Prince's celebration of his eleventh birthday.

Unnumerable reports of such curtailment of privileges are current in Copenhagen, some of them well authenticated and others mere rumor. In the latter category perhaps is the report here that practically all persons formerly rejected by the German army authorities on account of physical infirmity have been accepted for military service, even the rumor goes, men with club feet, others who are lame, crippled, and suffering from chronic illnesses of various sorts.

The Hague, Netherlands, Nov. 25.—The restriction by the Dutch government of the movements of metal workers who were intending to go to Great Britain to take advantage of high wages there has called attention to the position of the Netherlands in connection with war supplies.

The enforcement of the regulations was a surprise to the workmen concerned, several thousands of whose comrades had been employed in German munition factories since the beginning of the war. The labor representatives who conferred with the government officials were told that the action of the authorities was necessary because so many men were leaving whose service would be invaluable to the country in case of need, and that the prohibition of emigration is now applicable without regard to which country they might wish to go.

The Metal Workers' Union has entered an energetic protest against the stoppage of its members' emigration, and has brought forward statistics to show that many of them are out of work in this country. At the same time the Union demands, in case the order should remain in force, an increase of 35 per cent in the men's wages, and the Government is considering the problem thus brought forward as it affects the workers in the government factories.

For many years some of the Dutch newspapers have been calling attention to the necessity of establishing efficient arsenals and ammunition factories under Dutch State control to provide sufficient war material for the Dutch army under all conditions, instead of leaving the military forces of the country as hitherto dependent on foreign contractors. Possibly as a result of this agitation, the state since January 1913 has possessed an arms and ammunition factory on the Humberg at Amsterdam and an arsenal at Delft. These state institutions have been recently extended to include the construction of certain parts of flying machines and sea mines, but the entire output is based on the requirements of the small Dutch army on a peace footing.

Much has been done since the beginning of the European war to place the Dutch army in a position to cope with modern conditions of fighting. Under the circumstances the government deems it unwise to publish even approximate figures as to what has been done, but it may be taken as a fact that the Netherlands are prepared for most eventualities. The army possesses a good rifle, rather light as compared with others in use in Europe, and the country has enough of them to arm all its trained infantrymen. Rifle ammunition, too, is on hand in satisfactory quantities, reckoned on the basis of the immense numbers of cartridges fired off in modern engagements. Several private factories are engaged in manufacturing still further large quantities of these as well as artillery munition under the supervision of the munitions committee of the government.

As to the Dutch artillery, the army experts have followed closely the operations going on all around. They have made their calculations as to number of shells to have ready for each piece of ordnance and in all probability have provided for even greater quantities of shells than were considered indispensable by the French and German gunnery experts before the opening of hostilities. Provision was then made by the French for each piece of field ordnance sent on active service to be supplied with 575 shells. The Germans, on the other hand, calculated that 395 was an ample supply. Both have proved almost incredibly far below the actual requirements and the Dutch gunners are understood to have taken full cognizance of this fact.

As to the guns themselves, the Dutch have come to the conclusion that their artillery must be strengthened, and it is believed that much has already been accomplished in this direction, both as regards light and heavy field pieces and machine guns. The ordinary field guns in use in the Dutch army do not differ very greatly from the Austrian 8-centimeter weapons. They have also a very light field piece of 6-centimeters calibre, handy for use in broken ground such as is found everywhere in the Netherlands. As to heavier mobile pieces, some of the fortress guns are capable of being provided with field carriages and in this way guns of 10, 12 and fifteen centimeter bore could be placed in the field.

In Holland the guns of the field artillery have many times to be carried by water and the guns are often exercised in this transportation. In every irrigation canal are numerous shallow flat-bottomed scows used for the carrying over of cattle and manure. These are put to use by the artillerymen. Two of them are placed side by side and made fast. The gun and its carriage are then slipped aboard along planks used as runners, each of the scows holding two of the wheels. In this way most of the difficulties of the ground, when cut up by canals, are overcome.

YOUNG TRAPERS GET HIGH PRICES FOR SKUNK PELTS

Find Game Plentiful in Kansas and Sell Hides and Scalps.

Illinois boys who do any trapping, especially those living along the Illinois river and tributary streams will be interested in the efforts of three Leavenworth county, Kansas, boys who have shown themselves to be excellent trappers and furriers this fall. Their field of operation has been in the vicinity of Mount Olivet. The boys, Ed Miller of Mount Olivet and William and Edward Van Vegt of Salt Creek Valley, have operated in their work and have been successful in already marketing more than $100 worth of furs and pelts. Their bounty on coyote and wolf scalps has also been a factor in making the business successful.

The boys have been hunting and trapping in the heavily timbered land east of Easton and near Mt. Olivet. Skunks, possums, coons, coyotes and wolves have been shot and snared in traps and devices arranged by the hunters. Game is plentiful this year, according to the boys, and they expect to capture many more pelts this winter.

The boys derived great satisfaction from the capture of several black skunks and also a number of narrow-striped animals. The pure black skunk pelt with a small white star on the forehead is worth $7 to the boys in Kansas City market, where most of the hides and pelts are sent. The narrow striped skunk pelt is worth almost as much. The common skunk hide is worth about $3.50. Possum pelts are worth some less than skunks. Coons usually bring about $2 a piece.

Wolves are productive of returns in two ways. The pelts bring as much as $7 while the scalp of a full grown wolf is worth $5 to the country, while a bounty of $1 apiece is placed on the scalps of young wolves. Coyote scalps bring $1 apiece, while the pelts are not worth much more.

The trappers have been highly successful this fall and Ed. Miller, in speaking of the situation, said that he was unable to offer an explanation for the plentifulness of game. The timber growth was heavy this year and there was a good crop of most everything entering into the diet of the game. The boys spend only their spare time in hunting and trapping.

FAMILY ILL FROM PTOMAIN POISON.

Friday afternoon M. T. Driscoll, Wabash operator at Griggsville, was taken violently ill after his lunch at noon and came to his home and found his mother, Mrs. M. Driscoll, Sr., in the same condition. He called to a neighbor and Drs. Herman and W. O. Skinner were summoned and worked several hours with them. Both were revived and for a time the cases seemed hopeless. The poisoning was caused from canned salmon. Both are recovering. A daughter who resides with her sister in Kansas City was called home and a son from Springfield arrived at their bedside.

GIRLS! HAVE MASS OF BEAUTIFUL HAIR

SOFT, GLOSSY, WAVY

25 Cent Bottle Destroys Dandruff and Doubles Beauty of Your Hair

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderine you can not find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance.

Get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all—you surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine.—Advertisement.

A Bald Head Only Indicates that the scalp has been neglected. We recommend that you use "93" Rexall Hair Tonic. Kills the germ that causes the hair to fall out and will keep the scalp healthy. Lee P. Allcott.

ELKS HONORED MEMORY OF DEPARTED BRETHREN

Service Was Held Sunday Afternoon At Opera House—Addresses by L. B. Springer and John M. Butler.

Sunday afternoon the Elks' annual memorial service of Jacksonville Lodge No. 682 was held in the Grand Opera House. There a large company of friends assembled to pay honor to the memory of members of the lodge who have gone to the great beyond. The program began with a march played by Miss Deane O'Brien and then Rev. M. L. Pontius gave the invocation. The regular opening ceremonies of the lodge were carried out and the audience joined in the song, "The Vacant Chair." Mrs. George J. Orear's solo was beautifully rendered, as was the double number by Miss Rena Lazelle, with violin obligato by Mr. McClelland. Addresses were delivered by John M. Butler, who paid tribute to the deceased members of the lodge, and by Hon. Lawrence B. Springer, a prominent member of the order.

Mr. Springer gave some historical facts about the organization of the lodge which in a comparatively few years has gained world-wide prominence because of the principles of charity, justice, brotherly love and fidelity upon which it is founded.

Mr. Springer spoke of the establishment of the memorial custom which is termed "the lodge of sorrow." By national decree the first Sunday in December has been fixed as the time when the memory of the departed shall be especially honored and the living members pointed to still greater life and achievement because of the example of those who have gone before. To members of the lodge and those who are familiar with its principles, it is indeed an inspiring thought to remember that in all the Elks lodges all over the world at the very same hour members are turning back from their present day affairs to meditate upon the future and to honor the memory of their brethren who are no more. The order of Elks has grown rapidly since its founding and many prominent men are members.

John M. Butler, a member of the local lodge, who delivered the tribute to "our absent brothers," said in part:

Tribute to Deceased Members.
"Today among the Elks throughout the United States is Memorial Day—a day set apart for the commemoration of our honored Brethren who have gone from us. It is the one day of the year that is given over to the dead and I can think of no more fitting time for a memorial than this, the first Sunday in December. After the harvest when nature has withered and when the winds are cold and the earth seems barren, it seems especially opportune to contemplate that great tragedy of life and to call back the time when those who were near and dear to us were with us and so today we have asked who were fellow citizens and friends of our departed brethren to gather with us and help share our burden."

"It is my duty to speak briefly of our absent brothers and especially of those who have answered the final summons during past year. I have no eulogies to pronounce to them believing rather that the lives of honesty, uprightness are more expressive than any words of mine and that those lives will stand out as monuments for all time."

Three Have Answered Summons.
The first to be called was Brother E. B. Harmon. Brother Harmon came to Jacksonville about 8 years ago, and shortly after coming here he became affiliated with the local lodge of Elks, the not an active man in Elks circles he seemed to exemplify by his conduct the great principles upon which this organization is founded. In business by his honorable and fair dealing he won the confidence and respect of all of those with whom he came in contact, so that he was accounted one of our most successful business men. Death came to him after he had left the city, and was on his way to a Northern country in search of health.

"The next to leave us was Brother Robert M. Hockenhuil. Brother Hockenhuil, I knew best of all; born in this city, he made it his home throughout his whole life. After graduating from Illinois College, he entered the banking business in which he continued until his death; as a banker he was accredited the longest of any in this community and his success in the world of finance can best be measured by the industries with which he was connected. Gifted in song he gave of his talent freely. On the occasion of many charitable entertainments he was ever ready to lend his voice toward making that a success and he always had time to take two or three hours from his busy day to attend a funeral of even the most lowly and there chanting hymns to his Maker so that their going might not seem so hard. To those who were unacquainted with him he seemed a little stern but to his friends, it was not sternness but that dignity that characterized his entire life. He gave freely to the poor and while his charity was not of a showy kind nevertheless it reached out to every part of the community. I like to remember him, however, for his services to my Alma Mater, he served as a Trustee of Illinois College for many years, and during the time when he was trustee of that institution meant not only that person had to give of his time, his energy and his thought but also at the end of each year he had to go into his own pocket and make up a never ceasing deficit, and this because of his love for Illinois College and the cause of education."

"A few weeks ago it seemed that there would be but two to go from here but now they know the Angel of Death would not be satisfied with two and has claimed a third—Brother Edward Whitmer was the last to go to his reward. Personally, I was unacquainted with Brother Whitmer and had to seek my information of him from older brothers, and I know that when I asked of him they with one accord acclaimed him the most generous of men, that he was ever solicitous for the comfort and welfare of his Brother Elks and that he seemed happiest when working for their interests—our memory of him is the memory of love."

In a Better Life.

"I can't agree with Ingersoll when he said, 'That maybe it is best after all when in the happiest and sunniest hour of the voyage and when eager winds are kissing every sail, to dash against an unseen rock; and in an instant hear the billows roar over a sunken ship. Rather, I believe that death is less tragic when it comes in that time of life when men have passed into that period of tranquility, known as old age, and yet after all there is consolation in knowing that their vision is clear and that they now can see, know and comprehend that if we on earth can not. We know that they have gone to a happier state and a better life."

"We have no lessons to draw on this occasion but merely to say that, if the lives of those who have gone, would say could they be here, and that in death all are equal, no rich, no poor, no weak, no powerful, no wise, no ignorant, so that we might well exemplify the principles of Brotherly Love; love for our fellow man; and Charity and with brotherly love will come charity, and with charity will come justice and with justice, fidelity."

The Officers.
Following the addresses the regular closing ceremonies of the lodge were held and the very impressive services closed with the singing of the Doxology.

The present officers of Jacksonville Lodge No. 682 are as follows: Normal Kaykendall, Exalted Ruler; H. C. Goebel, Secretary; Jos. Burgess, Treasurer; A. E. Hall, Esquire, Wm. Johnson, Est. Lead. Kt.; Jay Rogers, Est. Loyal Kt.; C. B. Sawyer, Est. Lect. Kt.; F. L. Sharpe, H. K. Crenoweth, Geo. A. Smith, trustees.

GRADUATING EXERCISES OF STUDY CAMPAIGN.

The graduating exercises of the members of the Study Campaign, which has been in progress for the past six weeks at the First Baptist church, will come to a close tomorrow evening, when special exercises will be held at the church at 7:30 o'clock. Miss Mabel Forrester will give a violin solo, which will be followed by two spelling matches in charge of Prof. Rollin B. Tanner, one composed of the adult study class and the other of the junior class. The spell-down will be on the text books which have been studied. There will be a solo by Harry Beckman and the baccalaureate address will be by Dr. Samuel H. Boyer of the Central Baptist church of Springfield. The presentation of the diplomas will be by Rev. Percy W. Stephens. The exercises are open to the public and all will be welcomed.

LAD IS IMPROVING.

Robert Reid, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Reid of West Lafayette avenue, has almost recovered from the injury occasioned by the accidental discharge of a revolver. It will be remembered that the bullet struck the lad in the left side of his nose and inflicted a wound from which he bled freely. Fortunately the injury was not serious and he is now well on the way to recovery.

COUNCIL PREPARES FOR WEST STATE STREET PAVEMENT

Ordinance Was Passed at Monday Session—Next Thing Will be Spreading of Assessment Roll—Traction Company Will Remove Tracks on Illinois Avenue.

The West State street paving ordinance was passed by the city council at their session Monday morning. The ordinance was given a first reading a week ago and mention was made at that time that the specifications called for an asphalt pavement with a total cost of about $50,000. The pavement is to be constructed from Church street to Webster avenue and the total width is 40.6 feet. The amount of asphalt will be 11 feet less than this width because 8 feet occupied by the car tracks and adjacent space will be paved with brick and there are also 18 inches of each side of the street for the combined curbing and gutter. The pavement now between Fayette and Prairie is about 4 feet narrower than at other points on the street and it is planned to make such changes there that the width will be uniform the entire stretch of the street. The next step will be for the appointment of some one to spread the assessment and then the roll showing property and the assessment against each tract will be presented to the court for confirmation. It is the announced intention of the board of local improvement to have this paving work as well as other work of the same class, pushed forward as rapidly as possible when the settled weather of spring comes. A resolution passed by the council gives authority to the Jacksonville Railway & Light Company to remove their tracks on Illinois avenue and provides that the company shall have the authority from the city to re-lay the tracks at some future date if they so desire. The motion to pass this resolution was made by Mr. Cox with a second by Mr. Widmayer. Commenting on the provision that the company may re-lay the tracks if they so desire, Mayor Rodgers and City Attorney Reeve said that the meaning was that the company was not giving up any rights so far as its relations to the city were concerned and that if there was a wish on the part of the company later on to again use Illinois avenue, that the wording of the resolution would not prevent persons owing property abutting from asking that the company agree with them before constructing a line. Supt. Miser said that the company wished to abandon the use of the street because passengers were very few and the service was maintained at a loss, and that the resolution was worded in the way referred to so that the action might meet the requirements of the trustees for the bond holders of the railway. In other words, the action in the form taken would not in any way disturb the securities of the railway company which are of course, based upon all the company's property. Mr. Widmayer said that he hoped that by making this change the company would be able to offer East State street residents beyond the railroad tracks improved service. Early in the session Mayor Rodgers mentioned that the appropriation ordinance must be passed in January and that it would be well for all members of the council to review the situation and make up their minds as to the various funds which should be included when the ordinance is adopted.

The report of C. B. Graft, treasurer, showed a balance in the general fund of $10,020.41.

W. T. Dyer, justice of the peace, reported fines collected, $105.95, city costs $23.40, justice of the peace costs, $47.20, total, $175.55.

R. L. P. Jr., city clerk, reported receipts as follows: Jacksonville cemetery, $82.20; Diamond Grove cemetery, $213.25; thru city clerk's office, $223.76.

John E. Fires, sexton of Jacksonville cemetery reported seven graves made in the month of November. Harry Sammers, sexton of Diamond Grove cemetery, reported a total of seventeen graves made.

The report of Dr. A. M. Klag, health warden, indicated forty-five deaths, of whom thirteen were residents and thirty-two non-residents. This total includes twenty-five deaths at Jacksonville State hospital. The age range of those who died was as follows: under 1, three, 5 to 20, two; 20 to 50, twelve; 50 to 70, fifteen; over 70, thirteen. Under the head of contagious diseases the following were reported: scarlet fever, two; whooping cough, two; chicken pox, three; typhoid fever, one.

George P. Davis, chief of police, reported thirty-six arrests made, six of which were on state warrants and thirty on city warrants, with total fines of $176.50. The charges were as follows: assault and battery, two; disorderly conduct, four; drunkenness, five; violating the speed ordinance, fifteen; disturbing the peace, four; forgery, one; vagrancy, two; suspicion, one.

"BIGGEST EVER" POULTRY SHOW WILL OPEN DOORS AT NOON

With 400 Birds on Exhibition, Show Well Ahead of One Last Year—Further Entries.

With four hundred birds on exhibition and fanciers participating from Greenfield, White Hall, Springfield and Beards town in addition to an excellent number from Jacksonville and vicinity, the 1915 show of the Morgan County Poultry association, when it opens its doors to the public today at noon, will have already surpassed in most respects the poultry exhibitions of previous years. Judging will be continued through the morning and it is expected to have all awards placed sometime during the afternoon hours.

Secretary James C. Weber yesterday evening announced that all entries were in and had been recorded and gave the following in addition to the exhibitors mentioned in the Journal of Sunday:

Lucien T. Wood, Carrollton—S. C. Brown Leghorns.

Mrs. Fred J. Henderson, Litterberry—S. C. White Orpingtons.

Lynus Benner, Carrollton—Black Langshans, Bronze Turkeys.

Mrs. O. C. White, Carrollton—Blue Andalusians.

E. E. Hyatt, White Hall—Partridge Plymouth Rocks and Partridge Wyandottes.

Jacksonville Exhibitors.

George W. Hamilton—S. C. Buff Orpingtons.

Mrs. Edward Armstrong—S. C. Rhode Island Reds.

Elmer L. Snyder—S. C. Rhode Island Reds.

Edward Stevenson—Mottled Javas.

Mrs. W. A. Crawley—Light Brahmas.

Nelson Moore—White Leghorns.

H. J. Hammond—White Leghorns.

Mrs. Mary A. Dunavan—S. C. White Orpingtons.

Moore Bros.—Pekin ducks, Golden Seabright bantams, S. C. Rhode Island Reds, Rouen ducks, Pheasants and pigeons.

In addition to the entries there are several birds on exhibition not in competition. E. E. Hyatt of White Hall is showing Partridge

Plymouth Rocks and Partridge Wyandottes with which he took seven ribbons at the Panama-Pacific exposition. Thomas Stubblefield will have on exhibition tomorrow the White Holland turkey hen which won first prize at the exposition in San Francisco.

According to Secretary Weber Monday night there are in competition about four hundred birds, almost a hundred more than the number last year.

PUTTING ROADS IN SHAPE.

The road commissioners of District No. 7 have done an unusual amount of grading and bridge work on the roads of the district and now have them in fine shape for oiling in the spring. John McDonald has put in a great deal of time in superintending the work and is entitled to much credit, as are the other commissioners.

REMOVAL SALE.

As we have sold our building and have to give possession Jan. 1, we will sell all trimmed hats and trimmings below cost until after the holidays. Over 200 hats to select from. This is your chance to get a good hat for little money.

We have leased the room in the Grand opera house building, formerly used for the Grand cafe.

L. C. & R. E. HENRY.

ROADS ARE ROUGH.

Justin Leib of Exeter made a trip to the city yesterday in his Ford car, the only one reported in from the country. Mr. Leib said he found the roads rather rough and disagreeable but he managed to make the trip all right.
